

ABOUT THE COVERS

FRONT: This summer we are honoring 57 new Daedalians, the “new girls in town,” AKA the WASP. Unfortunately neither Connie Meade nor I can take credit for the art and style of the front cover. That honor goes to Nancy Parrish, daughter of WASP Deanie Parrish, and Director of the National WASP WWII Museum, creator of the WASP website and Director of Baylor University’s “Wings Across America.” Nancy is an able, willing and enthusiastic supporter of both the WASP and Daedalian organizations. The cover includes every WASP Daedalian. In Nancy’s words, “EACH ONE is important. The honor, sacrifice, courage, patriotism and service which they exemplified, not only during WWII, but throughout their lives, makes them unique role models in the history of our country. I wanted to make sure every name was included and each woman made to feel special and to feel WELCOME.”

Nancy, you and all the WASP are certainly “welcome” and all of you have been added to our growing list of “Great Americans.” ED NOTE: For those with the capability just type in WASP on the web and go from there to “Wings Across America”
